INFORMATION FROM BRAZIL.

The Bureau of American Republics informed of Several Changes in That Government Affecting America and American Citizens—Other Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The bureau of the American republics is informed that the government of Brazil has issued a decree, dividing the legations of that republic in foreign countries into two classes as follows.

First class. The United States, Germany, France, Great Britain, Chili, Argentine Republic, Uruguay, Italy and Portugal, where the legations will be in charge of envoys extraordinary and ministers plenipotentiary of the first class.

Second class. Austria, Hungary, Belgium, Bolivia, Spain, Mexico, Paraguay, Peru, Russia, the Vatican, Switzerland and Venezuela, where the legations will be filled by envoys extraordinary and ministers plenipotentiary of the second class.

The settlement of the Archipelago of Tierra del Fuego, which until recently was considered a barren and useless territory, is so rapid and has progressed so far as to require telegraph facilities between the islands and the continent. The commander of the Argentine man-of-war Ushuaia has been directed to lay a cable between Cape Virgil and Esplritu Santo, which are twenty-two miles apart. This is one of the widest channels in the Straits of Magellan, but it is considered the safest and most convenient for cable communication.

The newspapers of Buenos Ayres contain an elaborate account of the presentation to the president of the Argentine Republic of Dr. D. N. Bertolette, of the United States navy, special commissioner to the Argentine Republic in the interest of the world's Columbian exposition. Dr. Bertolette made a brief and appropriate address, setting forth the objects of the exposition, the progress of the preparations, and the desire of the people of the United States that the Argentine Republic should be adequately represented. President Pellegrini, in reply, congratulated the United States upon the progress of the preparations for the exposition, and authorized Dr. Bertolette to assure the president of the United States and the management of the exposition that the Argentine Republic would be fully represented. He expressed the greatest personal as well as official interest in the enterprise, and said that the official answer of the government of the Argentine Republic to the invitation of the United States would be forwarded promptly through the proper channels.

The newspapers of Buenos Ayres are showing a great interest in the affairs of the exposition, and are urging the government to provide such a presentation of the resources and commercial advantages of the Argentine Republic as will secure the attention of capitalists in this country.

The Buenos Ayres Herald, in an editorial reference to the presentation of Dr. Bertolette says: "The Argentine government and people are passing through difficult times, but there can be no doubt whatever that the part we shall take in the exposition will be a revelation to our cousins of the north, and will be far more complete even than our contribution to the Paris exposition."

Interest in the Caning Race.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Boating men in Washington believe that the National regatta on the Potomac in August will be the greatest of its kind ever held in America. In support of this belief they point to the fact that Secretary Gibson has already received more letters asking for information than ever before since he filled the office. From every section of the country clubs are writing inquiring for information and dates.

The interest among the Canadian clubs especially is far in excess of the past two years, and Toronto, Lachine, Montreal and other places have crews already in training. An innovation this year will be the first appearance of an eight-oared shell crew from across the St. Lawrence. Information received from that section says the Toronto and Argonauta clubs of Toronto, are rowing eights for the purpose of coming to the National regatta. If this is so, this race will present a great array of oarsmen, for in addition to such crews as the two named above, the Bradfords, Atalanas, Fairmounts, Schuykill Navy, Tritons, New York Athletics, Crescents of Boston, Narragansetts, Columbias and Potomacs of this city, and several other clubs will also be represented.

Changes in Senatorial Seats.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—There has been considerable changing around of seats in the senate chamber. Senator Colquitt, of Georgia, has pre-empted Senator Joe Brown's seat right in the front row of the Democratic side and next to the main aisle. Mr. Carlisle goes down to Reagan's place, the old Beck seat, in the second row facing the vice president. Mr. Brice gets Colquitt's old seat in the rear row of the Democratic side, and Hill gets the next one to that. Hampton's, Gordon, of Georgia, will occupy Bates' former place, and the Tennesseean will move around to the one to be vacated by Faulkner, of Virginia. The new senator from Louisiana, Mr. White, who succeeds Mr. Enstis will sit where Mr. Payne, of Ohio, had a desk, and Mr. Palmer, of Illinois, will be a close neighbor of Mr. Barbour on the outside row.

On the Republican side the shifting has been just as marked. Washburn succeeds Ingalls, and Quay will sit where Mr. Evans used to do his talking. Walcott goes down from a back seat to the place vacated by Mr. Spooner, and Senator Dixon, of Rhode Island will occupy the chair soon to be vacated by Senator Edmunds. The Kansas statesman, Peffer, has been awarded an extreme right-hand corner seat, lately occupied by Senator Allen.

THE ITATA HEARD FROM.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 25.—It is reported from Central America that a steamer resembling the Itata was seen last Wednesday by a coasting schooner which attempted to approach her. The stranger was running south, about thirty miles off shore, and sheered off to avoid being spoken.

The captain of the Esmeralda indignantly denies the reports that he was short of funds and to disprove the statements exhibited to a newspaper representative letters of credit and cash aggregating upwards of $50,000.

No reinforcements have been sent to Acapulco, the Mexican government regarding the garrison there as amply able to prevent the Esmeralda from forcibly coaling or otherwise defying the port regulations. It is not feared that the Esmeralda will attempt anything of the kind.

THE CRUISER CHARLESTON.

She Was Close on the Itata's Heels Near Acapulco.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—The Pacific Mail steamer Colima, which has just arrived here from Panama, reports having left Acapulco May 15. Just north of that port she sighted a steamer flying the Chilean flag, and answering the description of the Itata. The latter was steering south by east.

Later in the day the Charleston appeared and spoke the Colima. On learning what had been seen, the Charleston steamed away to the southward. The Charleston at that time was about 130 miles from Acapulco, while the Itata when sighted was about sixty-five miles from there. The Colima reports that the Esmeralda left Acapulco on the morning of the 13th inst., and went out to sea, but was seen near that harbor in the evening. The Itata was expected to arrive there on the 15th, and it was supposed the Esmeralda was waiting for her.

THOUSANDS IN DANGER.

CHICAGO, May 25.—Between 4,000 and 5,000 excursionists from this city who went to Calumet Heights Sunday afternoon, were compelled to run for their lives before a prairie fire, which formed a sheet of flame half a mile in width. Sixteen passenger coaches loaded with seekers of suburban loaves went out from the city early in the afternoon, and when all had disembarked at Calumet Heights, that suburb presented the aspect of a vast picnic ground.

Some boys threw matches into the dead prairie grass, and in an instant the blaze had assumed the dimensions of a genuine prairie fire. A brisk northeasterly wind was blowing, and as the blaze started in the southeastern portion of the platted prairie the flames spread and advanced with tremendous rapidity.

Calumet Heights was thronged with visitors, and when the ominous sheet of flame spread itself and came rushing toward them with the rapidity of the wind, a stampede followed. Men, women and children jostled each other in their wild flight from the advancing fire.

The scattered dwellings in the vicinity were in great danger, and their occupants, leaving their goods behind, joined in the flight. Fortunately the prairie grass had been mown from the northern part of the tract, and the wildfire, running out of fuel, abated before it reached the neighboring houses. Two police officers were severely burned while fighting the flames back from the dwellings.

FIRED ON THE POLICE.

COLUMBUS, O., May 25.—Mayor Karb's war on variety theaters resulted Saturday in a sensational affair. At a late hour Patrolman Donohue, on the Neil house district, entered the People's theater in Wall alley, just west of High, and north of State street; following a waiter discovered a man and woman in an upstairs department. They had ordered wine. Donohue attempted to arrest them, but they retreated into the private apartments of Col. Morris, the proprietor.

Morris and his wife, it is charged, prevented an arrest being made. Donohue went away and secured a warrant for Morris' arrest on the charge of resisting an officer. A squad of policemen was taken to the theater, but found the entrance locked. They broke down the door, and were greeted with a volley of shots, by whom fired the police do not know. Morris retired to his private apartments and barricaded himself in. Chief Murphy put in an appearance, and the policemen entered the house, but went away without making an arrest. Morris having offered too determined a resistance for the police.

A Merchant Fails.

LONDON, O., May 25.—Fred W. Peirce, of Big Plain, this county, one of the most extensive mercantile dealers in this section, has made an assignment to W. A. Strain for the benefit of creditors. His assets are about $20,000 and liabilities about the same. The principal creditors are Columbus wholesale dealers.

SMALL SUM ALLOWED MINISTERS

Less Than Three Hundred Dollars a Year Is the Average Paid—An Excursion to Ann Arbor, Michigan—Sunday Preaching and an Important Meeting Held.

DETROIT, May 25.—After prayer-meeting and some miscellaneous business by the Presbyterian general assembly Saturday morning the order of the day, ministerial relief, was taken up. The committee reported a balance, instead of a deficit, as usual heretofore, in the treasury of $19,097.49, the total receipts being $170,418.49.

The maximum sum per minister was fixed by the assembly at $300, and the average paid was nearly $280. Several delegates made eloquent pleas in behalf of greater assistance to aged and worn-out ministers and their dependent families, citing cases of great hardship. Adjourned until Monday.

The body attended the opening of McMillan hall and Ann Arbor university Saturday afternoon, leaving on a special train.

To give the general assembly a view of southern Michigan, and also to distinguish by its presence the dedication in the afternoon of McMillan hall, ex-Governor Alger provided a special train, which carried the commissioners and representatives of the press to Ann Arbor. The hall is the gift of United States Senator McMillan to the Tappan Presbyterian association, (so named from Dr. Tappan, the first president of the Michigan university.)

After Rev. Dr. Radcliffe, president of the association, had welcomed the assembly, J. W. Herdman, M.D., explained the reason for building the hall, which is designed to furnish a wholesome social and religious club, under Presbyterian auspices, for the 3,200 young people studying in Ann Arbor. The university has 2,500, and the high school 500 students, and nearly all are from outside the town. Mrs. Sackett gave the lot and building, to which McMillan hall has been added as a memorial to her young son Walter.

The general assembly commissioners enjoyed a quiet Sabbath yesterday. Dr. Green, the moderator preached in the morning at the Fourth Street Presbyterian church. President Patton, of Princeton, delivered a sermon in the Westminster Presbyterian church, the aisles of the spacious edifice being filled with chairs. In the evening Dr. Patton preached in the Jefferson avenue church. President Roberts, of Lake Forest university, also preached.

The feature of the day was a meeting in behalf of Sabbath observance in the afternoon, held under the auspices of the assembly Sabbath committee. Col. Elliott F. Shepard, of New York, presided, and addresses were made by Dr. Herrick Johnson, of Chicago; Dr. J. C. Gordon, of Omaha, and Dr. J. G. Mason, of New Jersey. A resolution that the Columbian exposition be closed on Sunday, presented by Dr. Johnson, was adopted by a rising vote.

TRAIN ROBBERS CAPTURED.

A Nineteen Hour Fight With United States Deputy Marshals.

OKLAHOMA CITY, O. T., May 25.—The Dalton Brothers and the gang that robbed the Santa Fe passenger train at Wharton station, after being chased for two weeks, were captured Friday night in the Sac and Fox reservation, sixty miles east of here, after a nineteen hours' fight by United States deputy marshals, aided by a detachment of the Fifth cavalry.

The marshals located the robbers Thursday in a cave and attempted their capture, but after the Daltons had killed their bloodhounds and exchanged a few rounds, they sent for the soldiers and effected the capture. One of the Daltons was killed and one soldier was wounded. The rest of the gang was captured.

Attempt to Wreck a Train.

OIL CITY, Pa., May 25.—Saturday evening about 200 of the society people of Oil City and Franklin held a moonlight picnic at Stoneboro grove, a short distance out of town. During the evening four drunken strangers were ejected from the grounds, and swore to get even with the party. About 11:30 o'clock, just after the train bearing the crowd had started for home, the trainmen discovered an obstruction on the track, which proved to be a rail chained down tight. The obstruction was removed, and the train proceeded. The drunken men are being sought by detectives.

Murdered by His Brother-in-Law.

WINSBORO, Tex., May 25.—P. T. McDonald, who resides three miles west of this place, was assassinated Friday evening while plowing in his field. The assassin first shot his victim and then cut his throat from ear to ear, almost severing the head from the body. Sheriff Law at once organized a posse and arrested two of his brothers-in-law named Hay.

Not Enough School Children.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 25.—The school board of Indianapolis has announced its determination not to accept the report of enumeration of school children, which shows a decrease of 14,000 children of school age as compared with the enumeration of two years ago. A protest has therefore been filed with County Superintendent Flick.

Sent Up for Life.

RICHMOND, Ind., May 25.—Charles Kenney, a tramp, who was accused of the murder of Oliver Morgan a prominent farmer, near Lynn, April 29, pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree Saturday morning in the circuit court and was sent to the state prison for life. He had made a full confession.

WHIPPED OLD WOMEN.

Poor Asylum Cruelties in Harrison County, Indiana.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., May 25.—A case of unexampled cruelty on the part of the custodians of public charity has developed in Harrison county, this state. Silas Stover is the superintendent of the Harrison county poor asylum, and his wife acts as his assistant in the capacity of matron of the institution.

There are at the asylum several old ladies, one of whom is 74 years old, and another nearly the same age, and badly crippled. Superintendent Stover and his wife are charged by these old women, and by other women in the asylum, with whipping them so severely as to cut long gashes in the flesh on their backs, both bearing the unmistakable marks of cruel beating. Another woman alleges that she was also cruelly beaten by these people three weeks ago, and the black and blue marks upon her back are yet plainly discernible.

From statements made by the unfortunate inmates these inhuman beatings have been inflicted upon quite a number of the poor old women, whose poverty and afflictions have made paupers of them, and compelled them to seek homes in the asylum.

Stover and his wife were arrested on complaints filed against them and taken to Corydon, the county seat, and given a preliminary examination, and both were held in heavy bonds to answer in the criminal circuit court for their conduct.

There is intense excitement in Harrison county against both Stover and his wife, and as there is a well organized band of White Caps in that county threats are made of visiting the couple, and these threats are likely to be put into execution. Both Stover and his wife admitted they had switched the old women. A little over a year ago the White Caps visited the former superintendent of that asylum, named Deubis, and took him out and gave him a terrible whipping on the charge of cruelty to the inmates.

SWINDLED.

Victims of a Chicago Loan Association Have the Agent Arrested.

CANTON, O., May 25.—Thomas H. Condry was arrested yesterday on a charge of obtaining $212 under false pretenses. He was agent for the Norton Building, Saving and Loan association of North America, doing business in Chicago. He collected money from different parties who were to take out loans.

They can get no satisfaction either from the company or agent. The case was brought by a woman who had advanced money in anticipation of a loan. A number of cases growing out of the same trouble are pending. Some are against the company, but there is trouble in getting proper notice served. Condry makes no denial of having collected all the money obtained. He says everything was sent to the company, and the crooked work is there.

PENITENTIARY SHOPS, BURNED.

The Loss $170,000—Much Excitement Among Convicts, but No Disturbances.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 25.—At 6 o'clock Saturday evening fire broke out in the factory of the Sullivan Saddle-tree company, inside the walls of the state penitentiary.

The loss is $170,000, distributed as follows: On the building, state property, $100,000; on the stock of the Sullivan Saddle-tree company, $60,000; on the stock of the Strauss Saddle and Harness company, $10,000, the latter loss being occasioned by water.

The state had no insurance. The Sullivan company's insurance was $32,000. The damage to the Strauss company's stock is fully insured. There was considerable excitement among the convicts during the progress of the fire but no disturbance.

SEAL FISHING.

The Revenue Cutter Rush to Receive Sealed Orders.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—The Chronicle of this city states that orders relative to the Behring sea sealing industry have been received from Washington by Collector Phelps. The orders are to be delivered to the commander of the revenue cutter Rush, and are not to be opened until that vessel is at sea.

It is not yet known by the North American Commercial company how many seals they will be allowed to kill, but the Chronicle states that it has learned from a reliable source that the number has been limited to 1,000 and that the season which begins June 1, has been extended to Sept. 21, instead of Aug. 21, as heretofore.

DEATH IN THEIR DRINK.

COLUMBUS, O., May 25.—Superintendent McAlpin, of the local water works department, has discovered that the sewerage from the insane and imbecile asylums flows into the Scioto river opposite those institutions, and is then pumped back and used by the inmates.

This horrible state of affairs is due to a leak in the sewer which conveys the filth from the asylums into the river. It is thought probable that the prevalence of typhoid fever recently at the asylum was due to the impurity of the water. The proper authorities have taken the matter in charge.

One Failure Follows Another.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., May 20.—The extensive clothing firm of Rodecker & Cohen, of this city, has made an assignment in favor of its creditors. The liabilities of the firm are estimated at $60,000. The failure was hastened by the wholesale firm of Levy Brothers & Company, of New York.

GENERAL HARDIN proposes to be one of the hardest fighters in the present campaign for his successful opponent, John Young Brown. Hardin never sulks—he never shirks. His Democracy is not of that character.

A NEW remedy for paralysis has been discovered. It is daily rides on an electric car. A woman up in Maine claims that this cured her, after several years of suffering. If this becomes generally known, electric cars will be converted into traveling hospitals for paralytics.

The colored Republicans are not in it, as far as the Republican State ticket is concerned. In making up the ticket the white brethren gobbled up every honor, just as they have been doing all along. It remains to be seen whether the colored contingent will carry out their threat and put a ticket of their own in the field.

Shorthand as an Accomplishment.

An accomplishment is generally understood to be a knowledge of some such branch as music or art which will enable its possessor to shine in society, but it is more properly a thorough training in any branch that will give finish and discipline to the mind. Regarded from this standpoint, shorthand ought to rank with music and art, because to master it requires as much concentration of mind, and a thorough knowledge of the rudiments of English is a necessary adjunct.

The mastery of the English language is in itself an accomplishment rarely acquired, and one which always commands respect. But the ability to catch every sound of the human voice and reproduce them with simple characters as rapidly as uttered, and then to transcribe them into good English, is an accomplishment coveted by the greatest scholars of the day.

There is nothing which will facilitate the growth of the mind so much as an easy means of crystallizing our thoughts. We are apt to think more accurately, and to better purpose, if our thoughts are to be reproduced and read. The value of the injunction, 'think much, speak little, write with care' is acknowledged by all, but in this age of hurry and bustle, when even our thoughts represent time, the ability to make immediate use of them is of paramount importance. By some ignorant people shorthand is simply regarded as a means of securing a livelihood, and unworthy the attention of any except those obliged to earn their living. Its value as a source of revenue is well attested, but has not music and art served the same noble purpose? And, for this reason, should they not also be despised? In many of the educational centers of the United States shorthand is rapidly growing in favor, and is classed by all practical people among the most important factors of a useful education. The late P. T. Barnum, who was so well known for his business success and his common sense, in an article in the Cosmopolitan for November, says:

'My craze is that every young person of both sexes should learn at least shorthand and typewriting. Here you have mental discipline and knowledge together—knowledge, too, that is almost certain at some time to be convenient and practically available. I can not conceive that one who knows these two branches thoroughly will ever need to go hungry in the present generation, for they have a constantly-widening use.'

The Ladies Delighted.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

The Air We Breathe.

Nothing else has so much to do with the physical well-being of man, in his wearisome tramp from the cradle to the grave, as the climate he lives in—the air he breathes—except the proper observance of well known laws of hygiene.

No matter how salubrious the climate, if one is imprudent in his daily life, he will be less healthy and shorter lived.

Climate in its relation to diseases of the nose, throat or lungs, including the bronchial tubes, is a subject specially important and timely.

When we speak of the "climate" of a region, we refer to the daily temperature, the frequency and suddenness of atmospheric changes, the clearness of the air, the proportion of cloudy and sunny days, the prevalence of fogs and dew, the rainfall and the character and direction of the winds.

There are certain diseases which are often produced by a residence in an undesirable climate. In such cases it is very important, when the circumstances of the patient will permit it, that a change be made to a climate more favorable.

Mistakes are often made in the selection of a resort for the invalid. One will be sent to Florida who needs the toning influence of the mountain air; another may be sent to a high altitude, when he should have gone to the sea shore, and so on. These are often fatal mistakes.

The region should be adapted to each individual case, as much as the internal remedy prescribed by the physician.

Catarrh, itself, is often produced by climatic influences, as well as by other causes. There are different forms of catarrh, and each class of cases is benefited by a special region. Some cases are produced by the damp, relaxing air of the sea coast, some by the harsh, cold winds of the lakes; and an intractable form of catarrh is often caused by the excessive dryness of the air of the Rocky Mountain region.

Asthma is a disease also that is affected very much by climatic influences. It is said "there is a climate for every asthmatic," but many spend a lifetime in trying to find that special climate.

There is no disease in the whole line of human maladies that the selection of a proper climate for is of more importance to the struggling patient than phthisis pulmonalis, or pulmonary consumption. This is specially true, because patients whose lungs are weak might be—often are—sent to a section where the conditions are such that the progress of the disease is very much hastened instead of being averted.

The climatic conditions most favorable to the restoration of the phthisical are: the rarification, purity and coolness of atmosphere usually found at an altitude of from 2,000 to 3,000 feet above the sea in the temperate zone. The region is all the more desirable if pine forests abound to give off their healing odors. It is also important that a place be selected where there is a large proportion of sunshine during the year.

The usual history of a case of incipient or catarrhal consumption is as follows: The patient first gradually loses flesh, he is somewhat paler than usual, becomes tired more easily, gets out of breath if he runs a little or climbs the stairs or a hill; and then there is a short, dry, hacking cough. He raises nothing. The cough continues, becomes a sort of "habit" and then there comes a time when he feels chilly in the morning perhaps, and a little feverish toward evening. He sweats at night and the cough becomes looser and he raises more or less mucus and pus; it may be nearly white, yellow or olive in color. He goes to his family physician who prescribes cod liver oil and hypophosphates of lime and soda, possibly adding whisky or malt in some form, but it does not cure him. It hardly checks the progress of the disease. Finally when the gravest symptoms appear, the physician and patient become alarmed and a trip to the south or west is proposed as a last resort, possibly when it is too late for anything to cure.

Many patients might be cured by a change of climate if made during the incipient stage of the disease, but prefer to stay at home and rely on drugs rather than incur the expense of the trip, the discomforts of health resorts, or the inconvenience of leaving the oversight of their business or home.

Usually the failure of the climate to cure is due to the fact that the patient has not sufficient vitality to sustain him long enough for the climate to produce the desired result.

For those patients who do not wish to change climate because of the expense, the necessity of leaving their business or home, or for any other reason, we can supply them with a treatment possessing all the good qualities of the mountain air and the very essence of the pine woods to be inhaled directly into the lungs while at home. We have perfected an apparatus by which we vaporize the most valuable balsams so that they may be inhaled into the air passages where they are needed, curing catarrh, healing throat or bronchial tubes, stopping obstinate, acute or chronic coughs, killing the microbes or bacilli of consumption, and healing ulcerations in the lungs; this

Here and There.

Dr. Clarence Pollitt, a promising young dentist of Cincinnati, is here visiting his parents.

Mr. Ben Preston, of Independence, Mo., is visiting his nephew, Colonel Frank S. Owens.

Messrs. Thomas Bolger and William J. Flannery, of Cincinnati, visited the family of Mr. John O'Donnell yesterday.

Miss Mabel DeGraw, of St. Paul, Minn., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Brown, of West Second street.

Knoll and McNeil.

Knoll and McNeil's wonderful cornet playing—it is difficult to speak in language adequate to the subject—has created a furore among our music-loving people which will not soon be forgotten. They are the most popular cornetists who ever visited the coast, and they have honestly won their popularity by the surpassing excellence of their work and their charming demeanor in public and private. There are thousands of people in the city who will never willingly lose a chance to hear the music of these consummate artists.—Examiner, San Francisco, Cal.

Maysville people will have an opportunity of hearing these cornet duettists and soloists next Friday night. These artists will be assisted by Mrs. Kathryn Boughner, a talented vocalist of Covington, and Mr. W. Frank Cady, the popular elocutionist of Cincinnati. It will be an enjoyable entertainment.

County Court Doings.

John L. Chamberlain qualified as trustee of Weiland & Frost, with Henry Ort as surety. R. B. Lovel, W. C. Richeson and Thomas Cummins were appointed appraisers.

YESTERDAY was Children's Day at Chester Chapel, where may be found one of the most flourishing Sunday schools of the community. Mr. John W. Boulden, of the First National Bank, is Superintendent. Devoted, himself, to Sunday school work and with a corps of assistant teachers, he has built up and firmly established this institution, for which the people of the place owe him and his assistants much. The church was handsomely decorated. The exercises consisted of music, vocal and instrumental, responsive readings, recitations, &c., of such character as to show very flattering results of the work of teachers and the intelligence and earnestness of the pupils.

BENEATH THE WAVES.

Sad Ending of a Sunday Afternoon Boat Ride—Two Boys Drowned.

A happy home at Aberdeen and another a few miles back of the town were plunged in sorrow by a sad accident yesterday afternoon.

Two young lads, one from each household, met death beneath the cold waters of the Ohio.

Mrs. John T. Ennis, of Aberdeen, and Mrs. Squire Waldron, living near Slick-away, are sisters. The Waldrons came in yesterday to spend the day with their relatives.

In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Ennis' son, George Edward, and Mr. and Mrs. Waldron's son, Caleb went skiff riding. They were about the same age, not quite fifteen, and were enjoying themselves in their happy way, when in an unfortunate moment they concluded to hitch on to the ferry boat Gretta Green, and have the steamer pull them back to the Ohio shore.

A rope was soon attached to a part of the rudder, and everything went all right until the boat had about reached mid-stream. The skiff in the mean time had worked to one side of the ferry, and when the boat changed her course slightly it brought the bow of the skiff in the wake of one of the wheels. The waves dashed over the bow of the little craft at this moment, and the lads became badly frightened. Some of the passengers called to them to cut loose from the ferry, and the lad holding the rope let go, but just at this instant, the waves rolled over the skiff and completely swamped it.

The unfortunate lads instead of remaining with the skiff, sprang out and tried to reach the ferry. In their fright, however, they floundered about in the water for a few minutes and sank beneath the waves before assistance could reach them.

Mr. Loge Cook was on some barges at the elevators and saw the boys when they tied to the boat. He was afraid they would have trouble, and when the accident occurred he at once jumped into a skiff and started to the rescue. He was a little too late, however, as the boys sank out of sight just before he reached the scene.

The river was soon dotted over with skiffs, and willing hands with hook and line began the work of searching for the bodies. It was not very long before they were rewarded, and the body of young Ennis was dragged from its watery grave. Young Waldron's remains, however, have not been recovered yet.

Ennis was an employe at Messrs. Myall & Shackelford's carriage factory in this city, and was an industrious and good worker. His funeral will take place at the M. E. Church, Aberdeen, at 2 p. m. to-morrow.

A GHOST created a sensation in a country town in Owen County for a week or two, until a bold young man threw his arm around, captured and kissed it. It turned out to be a handsome young lady living in the place, and ever since then the town has been alive with ghosts ever night, and the young men are having a picnic capturing them.—Cynthiana Democrat.

THE Mt. Olivet M. E. Church was dedicated yesterday. Dr. Robinson, of Covington, preached the sermon. Hon. Amos Shinkle, also of Covington, was there with his usual liberality when a Methodist Church is to be dedicated in Kentucky. Rova, A. Boring and V. T. Willis were, in company with Dr. Robinson and Mr. Shinkle, all at the St. Charles Hotel Saturday.

THE Kentucky Grand Lodge of Masons has been called to meet at Frankfort on next Wednesday to participate in the ceremonies at the unveiling of the monument to Ex-Governor Luke P. Blackburn. The Grand Commandery of Knights Templar will also be in session at same time and place and an immense crowd is expected. Fare round trip $2.90 via Lexington on Louisville & Nashville, or via Paris on the Kentucky Midland. Maysville Commandery will send a large delegation on Tuesday afternoon.

Points Picked Up at Fairview Debate.

A Methodist D. D. says Sweeney reminds him of an Arab in his mode of skirmishing. He comes in on his prancing steed, kicks up a big dust, lets fly his arrow and before his antagonist recovers from his shock and gets ready to shoot back, he is gone to the Hesperides—can't be found.

The questions now being discussed by our veteran debaters are not only elementary and fundamental, but of vital importance to saint and sinner. They enter into the peculiar essence and living form of the Christian religion.

The admittance of the debaters to the good sisters not to bring an elaborate dinner, but simply a lunch, has not been heeded. In lieu thereof several hundred huggies and carriages have come loaded with baskets filled with roast beef and mutton, boiled ham, chickens, ducks, light bread, biscuits, pickles, puddings, pies, crackers, cheese, tea and coffee. These have been dispensed with lavish hands, so that the midday collation, and the pleasant parties one meets, has been no unimportant factor in the social and feasting feature of the debate. Those living contiguous have invited friends and strangers to their houses, and visitors remaining over have had comfortable homes provided for them. Too much cannot be said touching the hospitality of this people.

Your bright and agreeable fellow citizen, Ed Myall, accompanied by his pastor, Elder Lucas, took in the daily debates and went to Blue Licks at night to inhale the balsamic air of that charming resort. Ed took in a fresh invigorating sulphuretted hydrogen gas and his pastor the diaphoretic properties of the famous Blue Lick elixir.

Just what Moody and Sweeney are doing Alexander Campbell proposed to do with Dr. D. R. Campbell, of Kentucky, in 1858—have a friendly discussion of mutual differences in the hope—though it may be a vain, distant and illusory one—of a restoration of fellowship between the Disciples and the Baptists.

No matter if the plow stops, and the rain gives us a slight call, "things may come and things may go, but the debate goes on," not "forever," but for eight days. Debate closed Friday evening on the proposition, "Baptism to a Penitent Believer is for (in order to) the Pardon of Sin."

Thursday this proposition will be discussed: "The Scriptures Teach that Man is so Depraved that He is Unable Without a Direct Enabling Power of the Holy Spirit to Obey the Gospel of the Son of God." Moody affirms.

The audience numbered six hundred Friday. Good order and close attention prevail. The following visiting preachers were present: C. P. Williamson, J. B. Jones, J. C. Kendrick, G. W. Yancey, G. L. Surber, J. W. McFarvey, F. M. Tindler, F. M. Hurst, F. Hull, W. A. Gibson, W. A. Morrison, B. C. Hagerman, Bela Metcalfe, W. D. Rice, C. S. Lucas, representing the Church of the Disciples. The Baptist ministry present were J. B. Bruner, George Varden, W. J. E. Cox, C. C. Cox, J. M. McFarland, J. D. Simmons, Cleon Keys. Resident ministry present: Joe A. Graves, M. Pyles, of the Disciples; J. H. Wright, of the Baptists. As the parties debating are in favor of "much water," we trust their united prayers will cause to descend upon our thirsting fields a copious baptism of rain. So mote it be.

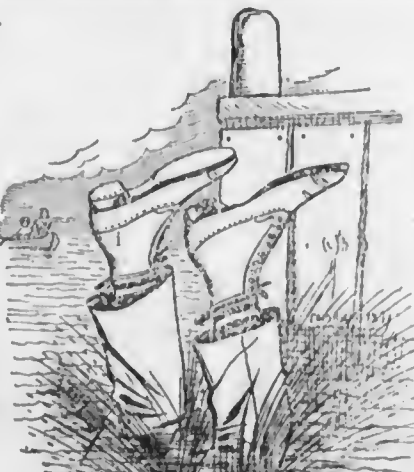

As to the continuance of the debate, the committee have decided to adjourn over till Thursday next, (28th), when the debate will be resumed. The communion question will be discussed, among other topics. The people are fully aroused, and will be here by the hundred, when the debaters return. J. B. H.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL.

When you buy a pair of Shoes you make, on a small scale, what is just as much of an investment as though you bought a hundred shares of railroad stock. From this investment you look for a return. If the Shoes have not been misrepresented you'll get it; if they have been, you won't.

What we claim for our Shoes is that you run no risk when you invest in them—that it will pay you to buy them.

Why?

Because—
 You get what you want;
 You are never deceived;
 You cannot be mistaken;
 You'll always be satisfied;
 The Shoes are right;
 The prices are right;
 And we guarantee it.

A Tragical Fire Occurs in London.

THREE LIVES SACRIFICED.

Lord William Romilly and Two of His Servants Smothered to Death—Narrow Escape of the Other inmates of the Burning Building—A Fireman Injured While Assisting in the Rescue—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, May 25.—A tragical fire occurred here on Saturday night. At midnight on that night, Lord William Romilly, was in his drawing room at his London town house, No. 7 Wilton Gardens, S. W., when he accidentally upset a paraffine lamp, causing a blaze which set fire to the apartment. Lord Romilly attempted in vain to extinguish the flames, which spread, causing a suffocating smoke.

His lordship was overcome by the smoke and sank senseless to the floor. The butler smelling the smoke, rushed to the drawing room. There he found Lord Romilly helpless. He at once pulled his lordship out of the room, and aroused by his cries the other servants. An alarm of fire was given, and engines hurried to the scene and soon extinguished the flames.

The firemen entering the house found two of the servants, Blanche Griffin, the house maid, and Emma Lovell, the cook, both senseless. A crowd surrounded the house and the excitement was intense. Lord Romilly was removed to St. George's hospital, but all attempts to save his life failed. Both the servants named were already dead when carried to the hospital. The butler and a female servant escaped.

A fireman named George Byne was seriously injured while assisting in the rescue of the inmates. The fire did not do much damage to property.

Lord William Romilly was descended from the great juriconsult, Sir Samuel Romilly. His father was also an eminent lawyer. He himself was born in 1835. He leaves a widow, Lady Helen (Dennison) Romilly, and a son by a former wife, John Gaspard Romilly, born in 1866.

Arrested for High Treason.

PARIS, May 25.—Emile Tripone, a French artillery officer, has been arrested on a charge of high treason, in being an agent of the Armstrongs, the British gun manufacturers. Turpin, the inventor of melinite, has published a pamphlet charging Tripone with stealing and selling the secret of the manufacture to the Armstrongs. The French police seized the pamphlet, and also arrested Turpin at his laboratory on Saturday night, the object of arresting both being to sift the matter thoroughly.

The News Confirmed.

LONDON, May 26.—The government confirms the statements as to the conflict between the British and Portuguese at Pungwe, but no details are given.

Steamer Sunk—Four People Drowned.

LIVERPOOL, May 25.—The steamers Lestrin and Mersey collided Sunday in the river Mersey, and both sunk, four people being drowned.

A CLOUDBURST

Does Much Damage by Causing a Creek to Flood Boise City, Idaho.

BOISE CITY, May 25.—A cloudburst occurred one mile north of this city Saturday evening in Culver Gulch. A great volume of water, ten feet high, gathered in the deep and narrow bed of the old creek and swept down into the town, flooding a great portion of it with several feet of water.

Considerable damage was done to the United States government buildings and parade grounds. Henry Rossback, living in Culver Gulch, saw the flood coming, and had only time to take his family to a place of safety when the flood carried away his house. The city loses heavily by the destruction of the flume. It is estimated that the loss will reach $40,000.

Valuable Onyx Discovery in Missouri.

COLUMBUS, Ind., May 25.—Professor S. S. Gorby, of Franklin college, twenty miles north of this city, has returned from Missouri, where he went to examine an onyx deposit recently discovered in Jefferson county, about forty miles southeast of St. Louis. He says the deposit is one of the largest ever discovered, and the quality very fine, and can be taken out in large blocks. It is his opinion that the supply cannot be exhausted for several years, and will yield a large amount of money.

Battle With Knives and Pistols.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 25.—Last night Sam Ingram and Joe Allen, prominent farmers, met in the road and opened fire on each other. Allen was soon joined by his brother Bob, and Ingram by his father and three brothers. In the battle with knives and pistols which followed, Fred Ingram, Henry Alexander, Joe Allen and Bob Allen were fatally wounded. The trouble grew out of intimacy between Sam Ingram and Joe Allen's wife.

Jumped from a Bridge and Was Killed.

CHATTANOOGA, May 25.—W. J. Artley of Seawane, Tenn., a man about seventy years old, neatly dressed, and of respectable appearance, jumped from the iron bridge over the Tennessee river here Saturday and was killed by the shock, falling at least a hundred feet. His body floated and was taken out by a man in a yawl. The dead man had evidently been drinking, as his corpse smelled of whiskey.

Man and Money Missing.

BELVEDERE, N. J., May 25.—Edward Hocking, a prominent citizen of Pen Argyl, Pa., has absconded, taking with him, it is alleged, some $8,000 or $10,000. His wife is left in destitute circumstances.

Queen Natalie's Friends.

BELGRADE, May 25.—The Liberals are organizing a meeting to protest against the expulsion of Queen Natalie as a violation of the constitution.

SARDIS.

The Granmill survey of the Abel Rees farm, near Shannon, made 420 acres. It was divided by lot. There are five heirs—Mrs. Annie Pyles, Mrs. Jennie Chantler, Winchester, Abel and Henry B. Rees. There was an equal division, quantity and quality of land considered. The old homestead and outbuildings were drawn by Henry B. Rees. One hundred and forty acres in Fleming was also equally divided among the same heirs.

BABY IS SICK—The woeful expression of a Des Moines teamster's countenance showed his deep anxiety was not entirely without cause, when he enquired of a druggist of the same city, what was best to give a baby for a cold? It was not necessary for him to say more, his countenance showed that the pet of the family if not the idol of his life, was in distress.

"We give our baby Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," was the druggist's answer. "I don't like to give the baby such strong medicine," said the teamster. "You know John Oleson, of the Watters-Talbot Printing Co., don't you?" inquired the druggist. "His baby, when eighteen months old, got hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and drank the whole of it. Of course it made the baby vomit very freely, but did not injure it in the least, and what is more, it cured the baby's cold. The teamster readily knew the value of the Remedy, having used it himself, and was now satisfied that there was no danger in giving it even to a baby. For sale by Power & Reynolds.

EXECUTORS' SALE

The undersigned will sell on Friday, June 5, '91, on the premises, one mile south of Minerva, in Mason County, all the real estate of the late James M. Hentt to the highest eligible bidder. This property consists of one tract of land containing one hundred and thirty-seven acres. The land is well watered and in the highest state of cultivation, three-fourths of it now is in grass. It is noted as first-class tobacco land, and nearly all of it is now in condition to produce as fine and as much tobacco per acre as any land in the county. There are six or eight acres of woodland, the fencing is first-class, being nearly all four wire picket or hedge. The other improvements consist of one two-story frame dwelling, containing three rooms and half below and two rooms and half above and two splendid cellars, summer kitchen, smoke house, hen house, carriage house, lee house, large and commodious stables and two No. 1 frame 40x50 tobacco barns. Fine orchard, good cistern and well, and abundance of good tobacco sticks.

The purchaser will be required to pay five hundred dollars down as an earnest of intention to comply with contract. Terms of sale further than this will be easy and made known on day of sale. Full possession will be given the first day of March, 1892. The purchaser will have privilege of seeding this fall. The undersigned will take pleasure in giving any further information, either written or verbal, and are ready at all times to show parties over the premises when called upon. Address all inquiries to Byar & Weaver, Minerva, Mason County, Ky. Sale at 2 p. m.
